MBA

Master of Business Administration

Weekday Programme

The Programme

The revised and restructured MBA Weekday Programme is in compliance with the Sri Lanka Qualifications Framework (SLQF). To facilitate and customize their learning experience to best suit their career aspirations, students who enrolled in this Programme are given three options: the Coursework, the Business Skill Project, and the Thesis. The duration of the Programme is two (02) calendar years with six (06) trimesters. Lectures will be conducted from 5.30 pm to 8.30 pm during weekdays.

Optional Research Component

The thesis option which is to be completed in one-year offers rigorous training in management and business research for academics and professional research who need a substantial research component for their career development.

Closing Date
June 30, 2022
