

Lead Engineer - Product Development

Location

Akbar Brothers - 1st Floor

Closing Date

12/31/2021

Description

The Job

- Responsible for execution and management of existing and new products and services
- implement features with proper testing to assure the overall quality
- Ability to do data analysis using Big data technologies such as Hadoop, Spark, SparkSQL, SparkML and Kafka
- Ability to install and maintain Hadoop hdfs cluster with resource managers such as Yarn and Mesos
- Ensure to deliver software documentation such as test plan, user documentation, Class Diagrams and Design pattern with examples
- Preparation of software documentation according to the industry standards and provide necessary guidelines to be followed by relevant parties
- Research products/services and technological trends in leading markets/IT industry and evaluate the applicability within the company
- Propose new product and propose the correct technologies
- Direct team members in managing required integrations with network technologies
- Ensure required operational support to respective teams for internally developed products and extend support to get technical assistance for products

Entry Requirements

The Person

- BSc in Engineering in Electronic / Telecommunication / Electrical
- 4+ years experience in similar field

